LIFE INSURANCE CORPORATION OF INDIA

Amendments to the Life Insurance Corporation of India (Staff) Regulations, 1960

In exercise of the powers vested in it under clauses (b) and (bb) of Sub-section (2) of Section 49 of the Life Insurance Corporation Act, 1956 and with the previous approval of the Central Government, the Life Insurance Corporation of India makes the following amendments to the Life Insurance Corporation of India (Staff) Regulations, 1960.

1. (a) Insert the following Regulation after the existing Regulation 59 of the (Staff) Regulations, 1960 :—

“59.A. The Corporation may grant medical benefits to its employees belonging to Class I in accordance with such scheme or schemes as it may approve from time to time.”

(b) The above amendment shall take effect from 1st January 1966.

2. (a) Substitute the existing sub-regulation (2) of Regulation 57 of the (Staff) Regulations, 1960 under the head ‘Refixation of salary’ by the following :—

“57 (2) Notwithstanding what is stated in sub-regulation (1) above, the basic pay of an employee belonging to Class III, Class II or Class I on appointment to a higher grade in Class I shall be fixed at one stage above the next higher stage in the new scale.

Provided that where the basic pay in the old scale is a stage in the new scale, the basic pay shall be fixed at the stage in the new scale which is next above his basic pay in the old scale.

Provided further that the basic pay shall be fixed at the minimum of the new scale where such fixation results in an increase in basic pay of at least one grade increment at such minimum.”

(b) The existing sub-regulations (1) and (3) and Explanations 1 and 2 under this regulation remain unaltered.

(c) The above amendment takes effect from 1st April 1965.

ANNEXURE

THE MADRAS OIL AND SEEDS EXCHANGE LIMITED, MADRAS

Special Bye-laws and Provisions for non-Transferable Specific Delivery Contracts for Groundnut oil

Definition.—“Non-transferable Specific Delivery Contract” means a non-transferable specific delivery contract as defined in the Forward Contracts (Regulation) Act, 1952, entered into, performed and regulated in accordance with Bye-laws 1 to 12.

(1) Bye-laws 1 to 12 are additional bye-laws relating to non-transferable specific delivery contract for groundnut oil. All the other bye-laws of the Association as may be in force from time to time shall also be applicable to such contracts and shall be binding on the members in so far as they are not specifically dealt with in and are not repugnant to those additional bye-laws.

Provided that the provisions in the other bye-laws regarding clearing shall not apply to non-transferable specific delivery contracts for groundnut oil.

(2) Every non-transferable specific delivery contract made subject to these bye-laws shall take effect as a contract wholly made at Madras.

(3) The non-transferable specific delivery contract shall be entered into only between members or between a member and a non-member.

(4) All non-transferable specific delivery contract shall be made in the prescribed form, serially numbered and supplied by the Exchange. The contract shall be made in quadruplicate, one copy each to be retained by the parties to the contract, one to be submitted to the Exchange forthwith and the fourth to be kept by the broker. The parties to the contract shall not include any special terms in the contract which are repugnant to the terms and conditions laid down in these bye-laws.

(4A) Every member shall send to the Exchange periodical statements of non-transferable specific delivery contracts entered into by him in such form and manner as may be prescribed by the Board of Directors.

(5) (a) The Board of Directors of the Exchange shall, before permitting non-transferable specific delivery contracts for any month, obtain the approval of the Forward Markets Commission for the same.

(b) The Forward Markets Commission shall have power not to grant such approval whenever it is considered expedient in the interest of the trade or in public interest so to do.

(c) No member shall enter into a non-transferable specific delivery contract for delivery in any month unless the Exchange has notified that such contracts are permitted.

(6) Every non-transferable specific delivery contract shall result in the delivery of goods in accordance with and subject to the provisions and procedure laid down in the relevant Bye-laws.

(7) No non-transferable specific delivery contract, once entered into, shall be settled mutually or by off-setting or by hawala or in any manner nor shall delivery under the contract be postponed to a latter date except in accordance with the provisions of these bye-laws.

(7) (A) The parties to the contract by mutual agreement may extend the delivery date by a period not exceeding 15 days subject to the condition that they shall notify to the Exchange in writing the original date and the extended date of delivery. If it becomes necessary to extend further the date of delivery mutually agreed upon, the parties shall apply to the Exchange in writing setting forth the reasons for extension of time. The Board of Directors or Sub-Committee appointed for this purpose shall have absolute discretion to extend or not the delivery time.

(8) With a view to ensuring due compliance with the terms and conditions of the contract, the Board of Directors or Sub-Committee (whenever it finds necessary or if called upon by the Forward Markets Commission) may ask the members to furnish the following, as also other particulars, and members failing to do so will be liable to be penalised under the disciplinary bye-laws of the Exchange.

- (i) Copies of the bill claiming monies;
- (ii) numbers of the cheques issued for payment,
- (iii) railway receipt number or the delivery order number, the date of delivery etc.
- (iv) other relevant particulars to show the mode of delivery.

(8) (A) Subject to the provisions of Bye-laws (8) (C) :

(1) In case the seller fails to give delivery, the buyer shall exercise any of the following options :—

- (i) Buy on the seller's account either railway receipt or ready goods on the subsequent day of the date of delivery (due date) and claim from the seller the difference of the contract price and the purchase price

- (ii) Close the transactions on the due date and claim from the seller the difference between the contract rate and the rate registered by the Exchange.

(iii) Cancel the contract

(2) The buyer may exercise one option for some part of the contract and another option for another part of the contract at his discretion.

(8) (B) Subject to the provisions of Bye-law (8) (C);

(1) In case the buyer refuses to accept a railway receipt or delivery instructions or if he fails to take delivery of the goods against the delivery instructions, the seller shall exercise any of the following options :—

- (i) Sell on the buyer's account railway receipt or ready goods before the end of next working day of the day on which the buyer refuses to accept the railway receipt or delivery instructions and claim from the buyer, the difference of contract price and sale price.

(ii) Close the contract on the day on which the buyer refuses to accept the railway receipt or delivery instructions or the buyer fails to take delivery of the goods against delivery instructions and claim difference between the contract price and the rate registered by the Association.

(iii) Cancel the contract on the day on which the buyer refuses to accept railway receipt or delivery instruction or the buyer fails to take delivery of the goods against the delivery order.

(2) The seller may exercise one option for some part of the contract and another option for another part of the contract at his discretion.

(8) (C) In each of the cases mentioned in Bye-laws (8) (A) and (8) (B) the buyer and the seller shall communicate to the Exchange in writing the failure or refusal, as the case may be within 5 days. The party failing to give or take delivery shall give reasons for such failure and the opposite party shall, if it has exercised the option given in clause 1(ii) or 1(iii) of Bye-law (8) (A) or (8) (B), explain the reasons why he preferred the option. If he has exercised his option given in clause 1(i) of Bye-law (8) (A) or (8) (B), the party shall give particulars of the purchase or sale as the case may be, effected by it.

The Managing Committee or a Sub-Committee appointed by it in this behalf, shall from time to time examine the aforesaid communications, taking into account all relevant circumstances and if it is not satisfied with the reasons or explanations furnished by any party or if it is satisfied about the purchase or sale claimed to have been made by the party under clause 1(i) of Bye-law (8) (A) or (8) (B), it may subject the party to such disciplinary action including imposition of fine, suspension and expulsion as it may deem fit, after giving the party an opportunity of being heard in the matter. With a view to restricting the use of the non-transferable specific delivery contracts only for the purpose of giving or taking actual delivery of goods and with a view to ensuring uniformity in dealing with cases of failure to give or take delivery, the Managing Committee may frame suitable rules under this Bye-law with the concurrence of the Forward Markets Commission.

(9) (a) The Managing Committee/Board of Directors of the Exchange may with the approval of the Commission, require at any time and from time to time, the buyer or the seller or both to deposit, in the interest of the trade, margins in respect of their outstanding non-transferable specific delivery contracts at the Exchange at such rates as may be fixed by the Board.

(b) The Forward Markets Commission may, in the interest of the trade or in public interest, exercise the power contained in clause (a) above.

(10) No member shall enter into any non-transferable specific delivery contract for groundnut oil otherwise than on the terms and conditions prescribed under these bye-laws. Nothing contained in this bye-law shall apply to a non-transferable specific delivery contract for groundnut oil entered into on the terms and conditions prescribed in the bye-laws of another recognised association between members of that association or through or with any such member.

(11) Any non-transferable specific delivery contract entered into for groundnut oil which at the date of the contract is in contravention of the provisions of any of the bye-laws (4), (5), (6), (7) and (10) shall be illegal under the provisions of Section 15(3A) of the Forward Contracts (Regulation) Act, 1952.

(12) The delivery period, delivery centres, quantity, and quality specifications in respect of non-transferable specific delivery contract shall be as specified in the respective contract.

Additional Bye-laws

(13) The basis of trading i.e., quality and conditions etc., of groundnut oil to be dealt with under the above bye-laws will be :

for a filtered, clean expeller groundnut oil of fair average quality, guaranteed not to be adulterated with any other oils and free from all odour; moisture and sediments not exceeding 0.5%. The F.F.A. contents of the oil to be supplied will be 2% quality. Oil containing more than 2% F.F.A. and up to 3% shall be accepted by Buyers with a pro-rata allowance i.e., 1% for each 1% excess F.F.A. Oil containing more than 3% F.F.A. or otherwise not in accordance with any of the conditions above is liable to be rejected by the buyers.

(14) The buyer shall pay to the seller in respect of Groundnut oil purchased by him 95% value of the goods at the time of delivery, and the balance on receipt of the Analysis Report from the Madras Oil & Seeds Association, Madras and in any case not later than 3 days from the date of delivery of the goods excluding any intervening holidays.

(15) The buyer shall pay to the Exchange on each transaction (Non-transferable Specific Delivery Contract) a fee that may be fixed by the Board of Directors of the Exchange from time to time—for registering such transactions.
